O R D E R

The revision petitioner is the respondent husband in M.C.No.109/2002 in the file of the Family Court, Manjeri, who is under orders to pay maintenance to the wife and minor child. It is noted in the order of the court below that the marriage has already been dissolved on the ground of alleged mental illness of the wife. It was found, and rightly so, that he is bound to pay maintenance.

2. The evidence adduced in the matter consisted of the testimony of PW.1 and RW.1, the respective parties.

3. It was found that the revision petitioner belonged to a family who are hereditarily carpenters. It was considering the probable income of the revision petitioner/respondent maintenance at the rate of Rs.500/- for the petitioners in the M.C was ordered. Considering the fact that the amount is only reasonable, I find no interference is called for. The revision petition is dismissed.

K.R.UDAYABHANU,
Judge
